The Biggest Ever Football Session

Dear Parents,

On Friday 8th March 2024, it is International Women's Day. To celebrate, we are taking part in The Biggest Ever Football Session, which aims to get as many girls as possible all playing football on the same day in schools across England.

Throughout the day, Evo Soccer will be leading an hour-long session for every year group of girls. The sessions offer a great opportunity for getting more girls into football and taking an important step in making the game as diverse and fair as possible.

We ask that all girls come dressed in PE clothes on this day. The sessions will run right up until the end of the day and take part on the playground. We kindly ask that children come prepared in appropriate clothing and footwear to suit the weather (cuffed tracksuits or jogging bottoms, t-shirt with a sweatshirt and trainers).

Yours sincerely

Tom Huckstepp PE Lead
