

What I should already know

Understand that social media comes with pressure, Understand that we have a significant amount of control over our online lives
 Understand that our actions/lack of actions can have an impact on ourselves and those around us, Understand that attention can be both healthy and unhealthy
 Understand that there are dangers online for younger people, Recognise some of the signs of online danger

Expectations versus Reality	Advertising Online is Everywhere!	Natural Resources
		Social Media Websites and applications that enable users to create and share content or to participate in social networking	Anxiety A feeling of worry, nervousness, or unease about something with an uncertain outcome.
		Reality The way that things are really, even if they don't appear that way
Sharing Personal Information	What happens if an image is shared online that I don't want to be there?		Personal Information
What Would You Do?  Leedsgirl41: Been on a school trip today. DrGamerKy: Where to? Leedsgirl41: Just to Carlton Hall. It's a place down the road from my school DrGamerKy: What school you go to? Leedsgirl41: Hmm... don't think I should say online. DrGamerKy: Fair enough. Any favourite teachers? Leedsgirl41: Miss Riley is pretty fun. Leedsgirl41 has given away all sorts of personal information. Can you spot it?	Who should I tell? An adult that you trust, Parent/carer, Older sister/brother, Auntie/uncle, School adult What can be done? The police can block images. It's illegal to send these pictures, so they can stop people from doing that. The sooner you ask for help, the better. Adults can protect you from strangers. Is it my fault? Never, We all do silly things sometimes. People will forgive you for making a mistake		Valuable Something worth a lot of money OR extremely useful or important.
			Control An image or information that you should be careful about sharing.
			Private/Sensitive Being in charge of how your information and pictures are shared.
			Flattery When someone says kind things, but they don't mean them - they are doing it to get you on their side.
			Negative attention Getting attention for something that isn't good - such as bad behaviour.
