

World War Two

Descriptive Words

What Was the Blitz Like?

aerial, dangerous, dark, destructive, devastating, focused, frequent, heavy, long, relentless, restless, strategic, targeted

What Were Aeroplanes Like?

aerodynamic, armed, bombers, crucial, equipped, fighters, important, prolific, transporters, vital

How Could Soldiers Have Been Described?

brave, captured, conscripted, determined, heroic, highly-trained, injured, prepared, strong, volunteers

How Did People Feel during the Second World War?

anxious, defiant, determined, disrupted, exhausted, fearful, frightened, injured, longing, resigned, resilient, self-sufficient, uncertain, unified, unsafe

What Were Children Like?

confused, evacuated, fearful, homeless, scared, separated, stressed, unsure

What Was Food Like?

adapted, basic, canned, dried, high-demand, homegrown, imperishable, imported, plain, rationed, regulated, scarce, shared, substitutes

How Has the War Been Described?

aggressive, atrocious, brutal, costly, devastating, disastrous, exhausting, fierce, global, incessant, prolonged, relentless, senseless, terrible, transformative

What Was Weaponry Like?

airborne, atomic, automatic, delayed fuse action, electronic, explosive, fast-moving, handheld, heavy, incendiary, naval, oily, psychological, reinforced, secretive, technological

How Could Communication Be Described?

crucial, effective, electronic, encoded, encrypted, radio, secretive, secure, telegraph, transmitted, valuable, visual, wireless