

Ancient Greece

What I should already know:

I know the meaning of BC and AD and that historical events can be ordered chronologically on timelines. I know that archaeologists use evidence and artefacts to tell us more about the past. I know that we can use evidence to help us learn about life in an ancient time.

Key Vocabulary

Legacy	Anything that is passed down from our ancestors or people who came before us. Things we still do / have today that the ancient Greeks did first.
Historical Evidence	The way we know about a time in the past
Primary Source	A type of evidence taken from the past (pottery, jewellery, building)
Greek Vase	A vase from Ancient Greece that were painted showing aspects of Ancient Greek life. A primary source of evidence
Architecture	The style or design of buildings.
Parthenon	A former temple on the Athenian Acropolis, dedicated to the Greek Goddess Athena.
Culture	The beliefs, customs, arts etc. of a particular society.
Government	The system used for being in charge of a country.
Democracy	A form of government in which power rests with the people.
Gods	Greeks believed there were many gods such. Zeus was the king of the Olympian gods.
Myth	A traditional or legendary story usually concerning some hero or event often used to explain why something happens or to teach a lesson.
Olympics	A series of athletic contests between city states in ancient Greece.
Philosophy	The study of the nature of life, truth, knowledge, and other important human matters
Theatre	The art of writing and performing plays.
Toga	A type of Ancient Greek clothing

Ancient Greek Column Design

Ancient Greek Vase

The Parthenon

Ancient Greek Clothing