

L.O: To edit a piece of work

Marking Guide

Missing capital letter

Sp Spelling mistake

This doesn't make sense (yet)

Paragraph needed

missing word

This is great, it's tickled me pink!

Marcus rashford is a famous footballer and has recently been in the news for supporting familys who don't enough food.

Marcus was born 31st October 1997 in Manchester. When he was a child his family did'nt always have enough food to eat. he was good at football and was allowd to join a special football programme early which helped him have access to the write types of food.

In february 2016, Marcus played his first match for manchester united's first team. He scored two goals and a few months later was playing for England?

In July 2020, Marcus righted a letter to the government. He shard his letter with evryone. In his letter, Marcus said was worried that lots of children in the UK weren't getting enough food and asked the government to keep giving poorest families access to free meals during the school holidays.

Marcus says that he will keep using his voice to make sure that no child has to go without food.

