We will be focussing on the Christian and Muslim religions

Muslim symbol

A pilgrimage is a special journey to a sacred place that followers of different religions go on.

Some Christians go on a pilgrimage to the Holy Land (modern day Israel) where they visit Bethlehem and Jerusalem, where Jesus was born and was crucified.

Muslims try to go on the Hajj - which is a pilgrimage to Mecca - at least once in their lifetime. This is a picture of the Ka'aba where Muslims visit as part of their pilgrimage.
