Welcome Back

Dear Parents and Carers

I hope this letter finds you well and that you are all now into the swing of the new school term. We have certainly had a lovely start to the term and all of our pupils are working super hard establishing new routines and relationships- especially our fabulous new year 3's- they are a joy! We hope you are also feeling positive and this letter is really to touch base and to share upcoming events and a few reminders. As always please get in touch regarding any worries or questions- no matter how big or small!

Work Showcase mornings- These run from drop off for around 15 minutes (or just a very quick pop in is fine if you are in a rush) and are an informal way of parents popping into class and sitting with their child to see some of the lovely work they have been doing.	16/9- 3T- Miss Taylor 17/9-3JF- Mr Frampton 18/9- 3J- Miss Jackson 23/9- 4TH- Mr Huckstepp 24/9-4H- Mrs Harding and Mr Harrison 25/9- 4WL- Mrs Lowe & Mrs Waggott

Our usual communication/letters will continue to be sent out on a Friday and our half termly newsletter will continue and endeavour to keep you up to date with life and events in school.

In the meantime, please feel free to email if there are any concerns or use class DoJo for more informal questions with class teachers.

Wishing you all a lovely half term and hopefully some sunshine this weekend!

Yours Sincerely

Nicola Sexton- Head Teacher
