What I should already know		Key Vocabulary
I know how to analyse existing products and use ideas to inform my own design choices. I have seen different textiles and understand about texture.			Appliqué	When one piece of fabric is 'applied' and stitched on top of another.
			Embellishment	Something that is attached to a piece of fabric for decoration like of bead or piece of ribbon.
Diagram X			Embroidery	Using stitches to make patterns or shapes in your fabric.
			Fabric	The textile used to make your item.
			Felt	A fabric made by rolling and pressing wool and another fabric with heat and moisture which running stitch cross stitch		S cross stitch	Finishing off	How to end a run of stitches.
			Function	What is a product used for. Is it big and strong enough for purpose
			Needle	The (usually) metal object used to form stitches in fabric. It is sharp, be careful! The thread goes through the eye of the needle.
over-stitch U scissors		Pattern/ template	A shape drawn to the exact shape and size of a product and used to assist cutting out.
			Pin	These are used to hold two pieces of fabric together. They are sharp, be careful!
			Stitch	Used to join two pieces of fabric together or to add decoration to c piece of textile work.
needle	pearl cotton thread	appliqué	Thread	Used to form different stitches in fabric. It might be cotton, nylon or wool.
		Visual appeal	This means how attractive and eye-catching it is!
	simple embroidery
		kisting products and use a	a prototype to hel	p in my design stage.
Aake: Create	a Christmas themed s	tocking using basic sewing	g stitches.
Evaluate: I wi	ll evaluate my own wor	k compared to a desian ci	riteria and also ev	aluate a peer's work in the same way.