What to do today

IMPORTANT Parent or Carer – Read this page with your child and check that you are happy with what they have to do and any weblinks or use of internet.

1. Read and think about an advert

- Read the child president advert and Applicant Information.
- Do you think this (imaginary) scheme is a good idea? What could be its advantages? What problems could it create?

2. Practise finding the subjunctive

- Use the Revision Card to remind yourself about the subjunctive,
- Find and highlight examples of the subjunctive in Applicant Information.
- Challenge yourself to find examples of the passive voice and formal vocabulary as well.

Well done. Share your highlighting with a grown-up. Explain to them what you have found. (You can check some of your answers at the end of the pack)

3. Now for some writing

- Decide 3-5 actions that you would take if you were president.
- Use Writing prompts to plan some writing.
- Write your application.

Try the Fun-Time Extras

- Interview other people to find out what they would do if they were president.
- Make a drawing to show how the world would have improved a year after you were president.

CHILD PRESIDENT REQUIRED

- Must be between 7 and 11 years old
- Must have a clear vision for their presidency
- Term of presidency will be for one week and will include full law-making, financial and organisational resources

Interested applicants should contact childpresident@wgo.org

Applicant Information

Applications may be received from any child. The committee insists that applicants be aged between 7 and 11 years old at the point of application. No other ages are eligible for entry. Applications must be written in standard English and should directly address the title: 'If I were president...' Applications will be judged for their clarity and the originality of their content. The judging committee recommends that applicants describe between three and five actions they would take. The committee also requires that applications be not more than 300 words in length. It is also essential that applicants be not related in any way to the judging committee.

Upon receipt of the application, the committee shall give due and careful consideration to the merits contained. It is vital that the applicant's vision for the presidency be clearly conveyed. Were an application to be successful, the applicant will be contacted at the address provided, and arrangements will be made for them to commence their presidency.

The presidential term shall be for one week. Appropriate law-making powers and associated resources will be assigned to the Child President during this term.
